

Need help with your Mac computer? While the Library is unable to offer computer classes about using Mac computers, here are some resources to help you become Mac savvy.

FREE FROM THE LIBRARY

Learning Express Computer Tutorials www.deschuteslibrary.org/onlineresources/learnatest.aspx
Use your Deschutes Public Library card to log on and create an account with Learning Express. Take the self paces Mac OS X Courses.

Books - Search the Library catalog catalog.dpls.lib.or.us/ to find books about using a Mac. Select Subject search from the drop down menu and type in Macintosh (Computer) to find titles.

FREE ON THE WEB

Official Mac Manuals support.apple.com/manuals/
Select the manual for your specific computer to get the official scoop on how to use your Mac.

Official Mac Videos support.apple.com/videos/
Search for videos about Mac OS or other Mac topics.

MakeUseOf.com Mac Manual www.makeuseof.com/pages/download-free-mac-manual
Free 60+ page manual based on Snow Leopard operating system. Tells you everything you need to know about Mac. Learn numerous tips, tricks and free applications. Get the hang of the interface and discover what your Mac is really capable of. Ideal for Mac beginners and Windows switchers.

Mac OS X Shortcut Cheat Sheet www.makeuseof.com/pages/downloads
Learn the essential shortcuts to use with the Finder Menu, the Apple Menu, the View Menu, the Go Menu, the keyboard and more.

Mac Beginners Guide guides.macrumors.com/Mac Beginner's Guide
This guide provides information for users who are new to or want to know more about the Mac platform. If you are interested in learning about software, media players, and shortcuts and would like to find out some useful tips, tricks and hints then this guide should prove valuable.

Official Apple Support Forum <https://discussions.apple.com/index.jspa>

MacRumors Forum forums.macrumors.com/