

ART EXHIBIT AGREEMENT

_____ (Exhibitor), and the Redmond Library Art Committee (collectively referred to as "the Art Committee"), agree as follows:

- 1. Exhibits. Exhibitor may exhibit works of art approved by the Library Art Committee at the Redmond Library from _____ to _____ at locations designated by the Redmond Library Art Committee. Exhibitor or Exhibitor's representative may not remove an exhibited work from the library without signing the Art Committee's copy of this agreement, acknowledging return of the artwork to Exhibitor or Exhibitor's representative.
- 2. Control of Artworks; Advertising. Exhibitor will maintain ownership of all exhibited artwork at the library. Images may be used in promotion of the exhibit.
- 3. Sale and Delivery. Artists may sell materials. All purchases must go through the Friends of the Redmond Library. 20% of the sale price will be donated to the Friends of the Redmond Library. All prices are firm.
- 4. Damage, Destruction and Theft. The Library District will insure works of art against vandalism or theft. Artists will be required to provide evidence of the value of the displayed item either through appraised value or based on past sales. The District's insurance agency shall have final say over the value of displayed items. Exhibitor specifically agrees to waive any and all claims, demands, actions or suits against the Art Committee, the Library, its officers, agents or employees, on behalf of Exhibitor or any insurer of Exhibitor's work, for any damage, destruction or loss of any nature suffered by the Exhibitor or Exhibitor's work of art.
- 5. It is the responsibility of the Exhibitor to pick-up works of art after the expiration period described above. The Art Committee will attempt to notify Exhibitor of the need to remove Exhibitor's works of art, but shall not have a duty to do so. If an exhibited work of art is not removed within 10 days after the expiration of the exhibition period, the exhibited work shall be deemed abandoned by the Exhibitor and the work of art shall be donated to another charitable organization for disposal.
- 6. Exhibitor shall immediately notify the Art Committee of any change of address or telephone number. In case of death of the Exhibitor, the Exhibitor's legal representative shall provide the Art Committee with the name, address and telephone number of the person responsible for the decedent's property.
