Overview and General Rules

I. OBJECTIVE

Public meeting spaces are made available to encourage free expression and free access to ideas presenting all points of view on subjects of all kinds. Use of a Library’s public meeting space does not constitute the Deschutes Public Library’s endorsement of the organization’s or groups’ beliefs or business practices.

II. GENERAL USE OF PUBLIC MEETING SPACES

1. Public meeting spaces within Library facilities are designated by the Director and are available on a non-discriminatory, equal basis in compliance with local, state, and federal laws. No activities that conflict with the Library customer code of conduct (Administrative Rule 14) or with local, state, or federal laws or regulations are allowed.

2. Priority for the use of the Library’s public meeting space is for Library programs and Library-sponsored programs. There is no time limit on how far in advance Library programs, Library operations, and Library-sponsored programs/events may be scheduled. The Library reserves the right to reschedule or cancel confirmed meeting room reservations to accommodate Library programs, events or operations.

III. RESERVATIONS AND ACCESS

1. Community Room Reservations for using a Library facility’s larger, Community Room is on a first-come, first-served basis. Reservations for Community Rooms are made no more than 90 days in advance. A group can reserve the use of a Library Community Room once every seven days. Each group must consist of three (3) or more people. Notification of cancellation is requested at least 48 hours before the meeting or event. Failure to notify the Library may result in loss of all public meeting space use privileges.

2. Meeting Room Reservations for using a Library facility’s Meeting Room is on a first-come, first-served basis. Reservations for Meeting Rooms are made no more than 90 days in advance. A group can reserve the use of a Library Meeting Room once every seven days. Each group must consist of three (3) or more people. Notification of cancellation is requested at least 48 hours before the meeting or event. Failure to notify the Library may result in loss of all public meeting space use privileges.

3. Study Room Reservations for using a Library’s Study Room is on a first-come, first-served basis. Study rooms are available one time each day for no more than two hours and can be reserved up to seven days in advance. Study rooms may be used by one or more persons at a time. If not present within 15 minutes of reservation time, the customer’s reservation may be cancelled without penalty.

4. Library personnel must have physical and visual access to Library community, meeting and study rooms at all times.

5. Only meeting or event attendees are allowed in the Community Room outside of the Library’s standard operating hours at the East Bend Library. Access is limited to operating hours only at the Downtown Bend Library, La Pine Library, Redmond Library and Sisters Library.

IV. FEES

1. The use of the Library’ public meeting space is free of charge, with the following exceptions:
VI. RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Reservations for rooms at all Library facilities will be made using an onZine system. Time and day availability is also displayed using the same onZine system.

2. Meeting and study rooms are available only during the library’s operating hours.

3. Attendance may not exceed posted capacity of the meeting room.

4. Public meetings and all meeting materials are limited to the assigned area and noise must not interfere with Library business. There is no storage space on the Library premises in which groups may store items.

5. Children aged 6 and under who accompany an adult to a public meeting space must remain with the adult at all times. Use of a public meeting space by groups who are under the age of 17 must be supervised and attended by the adult on the room application.

6. The use or distribution of tobacco or cannabis products are not permitted on the Library premises.

7. Alcoholic beverages are not permitted on the premises, unless provided as part of a Library-sponsored event.

8. Decorations may not to be affixed to any wall, bulletin board, window, ceiling, light or permanent fixture in the room.

9. The sponsoring group or individual may not market their event, meeting or presentation as a library sponsored or library hosted event or use any other terms or photos that suggest the Library endorses the group’s business or activities. The sponsoring group must be clearly identified if the group is publicizing a meeting to be held in a Library public meeting space. Publicizing may not infringe upon access or enter the Library facility.

10. The applicant is responsible for the care and cleanliness of the room and will be held responsible for any damage to the general condition of the room following its use. The applicant will be assessed charges for repair or replacement of any damaged contents of the room, as well as the physical boundaries of the room including but not limited to flooring, wall, ceilings and anything attached thereto.

11. The Library's audiovisual equipment may be available for use in the meeting room. Person(s) attending the meeting must be trained in its use before the meeting date. The group and/or person reserving the public meeting space is responsible for damage to any Library equipment and may be assessed fees for repair or replacement.

12. The Library is not responsible for nonLibrary or personal audiovisual equipment, laptops and/or their use.

13. The Library is not responsible for theft of, or damage to, property brought into the Library.

14. At the conclusion of a meeting, applicants will return all furniture and equipment to the places they were found or following the posted room reset diagram.

15. Failure to comply with this Public Meeting Spaces administrative rule will result in withdrawal of room use privileges at all Library facilities.

16. East Bend Library: If the East Bend Community Room will be used outside of the Library’s standard operating hours, keys may be checked out up to three days in advance of the branch’s open hours from the library where the meeting will be held. The Library is not responsible for opening meeting room if keys are not checked out in advance.

The Community Room key to the East Bend Library is to be returned no later than the following business day in the pouch provided when checked out. They can be placed into the after hours book drop or returned directly to Deschutes Public Library staff.