OCTOBER
Know Monsters
The monsters are coming out from under the bed! Explore the fantastic and thrilling, the grisly and chilling with Know Monsters. Celebrate the 200th anniversary of Mary Shelley’s classic horror tale, Frankenstein, explore the fascination with serial murder, get scared silly with spooky stories told by a professional storyteller, and discover some of history’s real monsters.

NOVEMBER
Know Water
On average, water makes up 60% of the human body. Not only is water a part of our bodies, it is a part of our landscape and imagination. Create with watercolors, talk about river restoration, celebrate the heritage of Bend’s Water Pageant, and learn about hydroponic gardening this November.

OMETELAKKAD Writers Reading
Omar El Akkad’s debut novel, American War, won the 2018 Oregon Book Award for Fiction. El Akkad was born in Cairo, Egypt, and grew up in Doha, Qatar, before moving to Canada. He’s a graduate of Queen’s University and lives with his wife in the woods just south of Portland, Oregon.

HUNTER LEE HUGHES Writers Reading
Hunter Lee Hughes (writer-director-producer) created Guys Reading Poems after immersing himself in poetry books left to him by his late grandmother. He committed to write and direct Guys Reading Poems with the hope of effectively combining visual poetry with narrative storytelling in a feature film. His favorite poet is Rumi.

STAFF

Liisa Sjoblom • Downtown Bend
If you own or are looking to start a business in Central Oregon, there's a good chance you know Liisa Sjoblom, a community librarian whose work focuses on supporting the business community and those who are seeking employment. Liisa helps customers with business planning by researching market and industry data. She also assists individuals seeking employment by helping them with resumes and other job-seeking tools. “I like helping people fulfill their dreams as they start planning their new business ventures,” she says. “It’s exciting to hear about what people are planning and then see those businesses succeed. It is also very satisfying to help people put their resume together and then find out that they landed the job offer. In both cases it’s all about connecting people with the information that will make them successful.” Liisa has been with Deschutes Public Library for almost 20 years, and her favorite book is Erin Morgenstern's The Night Circus. Thank you, Liisa!

Graham Fox • Redmond
Graham, a former supervisor and now community librarian at the Redmond Library, has worked for DPL for three years. He loves where he works and the people he works with, both staff and customers. “The team at Redmond is really great and easy to work with,” Graham says. “We really are a team and come up with good decisions and support each other throughout the day. Everyone believes in my mantra of ‘smile and wave,’ which I hope we’ve done when the community has been in the library.” Graham believes in libraries as a place for the people. “I love that they are a free place where anyone can go to meet their friends, learn something new, get some peace and quiet, or just people watch and read in the lobby,” he says. Graham’s a big fan of author Philip K. Dick, but in terms of a favorite book, he says he keeps coming back to Neal Stephenson’s Snow Crash. “There’s something about that book that’s crazy, fast-paced, futuristic, silly, and magical. Plus, they have a good librarian character who can walk in perfect silence. I think about him every time my shoes squeak when I stroll through the building.” We don’t mind the squeaks, Graham! Thanks for all you do.

Kat Templin • East Bend
Kat began volunteering at the East Bend Library in 2017. She grew up in Germany, where her mother took her on regular visits to her town’s library. When Kat and her husband moved to Bend she knew she wanted to volunteer, and a library—where she spent so much time as a child—was her first choice. “I love books, and I love physical books. I like that libraries still exist and I want them to keep existing for as long as possible,” she says. Our thanks to Kat for choosing to spend her volunteer time with us.

READ

Your library card gives you access to hundreds of thousands of books and magazines that you can read any way you like—in print or digital form. Browse our catalog anytime, anywhere with your internet-enabled device and put books on hold to pick up later or download a book to read right away. If you’re ready to download books and magazines, we have great apps that make it quick and easy:

Libby
Get the Libby app for your phone or tablet, and you can borrow eBooks and audio books quickly and easily from anywhere—whether you’re at home or half way across the world on vacation. Libby features an integrated, ground-breaking eBook reader. Prefer reading on your Kindle? Libby can send your library books to that device. And with Libby you can download books and audio books for offline reading, or stream them to save space.

RB Digital
Read on the go without wasting the paper that comes with traditional magazines. With the RB Digital app you have access to more than 100 popular magazines that range from The Economist to In Touch, and National Geographic to Vanity Fair. You can read magazines online in your web browser, or get the app for your phone or tablet and read them on the go.

Hoopla Digital
Easy to use with no waiting and no hassles, Hoopla Digital gives you access to up to 12 items every month to read on your computer or mobile device. Hoopla includes graphic novels and eBooks that you can check out with no waiting ever, even for hot titles and best-sellers. And they automatically return on the due date, so you can say goodbye to late fees.

WATCH

Movie night is fun and free with your library. You can stop by any Deschutes Public Library location to browse the shelves for a DVD, or use one of our video apps to stream or download movies on the go or from home.

Kanopy
Kanopy is an award-winning video streaming service with more than 30,000 independent and documentary films—titles of unique social and cultural value from The Criterion Collection, the Media Education Foundation, and thousands of independent filmmakers. Stream using Kanopy anytime, anywhere on your preferred device. You can borrow up to 10 items a month with Kanopy.

Hoopla Digital
Hoopla is more than graphic novels and eBooks—it also features thousands of movies, television shows, educational and instructional videos, and documentaries. There are an unlimited number of copies for the titles in the collection, so that means you won’t need to wait for any item. Start streaming immediately, or download a title to your phone or tablet for offline viewing later. You can borrow up to 12 items a month with Hoopla.

Note: all digital resources are accessible for free to Deschutes Public Library card holders in good standing who reside in Deschutes County.
LISTEN. LEARN.

LISTEN

Whether you’re looking for an audio book to listen to on a road trip or music to stream for a dinner party, it’s all available from your library. You can check out traditional CDs next time you visit one of our locations, or you can download or stream music and audio books when and where it works for you.

Hoopla Digital
